SECTION I Introduction

The formal name of our community organization is the Hidden Valley Foundation, Inc. This may be referred to as “The Foundation or HVF” in this document and does apply to all the sub-associations as well.

The purpose of the Unit Owner and Resident House Rules Handbook for HVF is to explain the responsibilities and rights of all unit owners, residents, and visitors to HVF and to detail the use and restrictions of the Foundation’s policies.

This handbook is designed both to serve as a quick reference guide to frequently asked questions and to provide a synopsis of the Foundation’s Governing Documents. This document is not intended to be all-inclusive or exclusive, and it does not attempt to provide the level of detail found in the underlying policies or covenants.

The procedures and regulations set forth in this handbook are in addition to the guidelines set forth in the Governing Documents. Care has been taken to avoid any conflict; however, in the event of a conflict, the following hierarchy of authority will apply:

- Federal statutes, regulations, and court decisions
- State statutes, including the Pennsylvania Condominium Act, the Uniformed Planned Community Act, and court decisions
- Somerset County and local statutes, regulations, and court decisions
- Hidden Valley Foundation, Inc. Recorded Declaration
- Hidden Valley Foundation, Inc. Recorded Bylaws
- Hidden Valley Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors General, Administrative and Policy Resolutions
- Hidden Valley Foundation, Inc. Unit Owner and Resident House Rules Handbook (this document)
- Procedures established by the Hidden Valley Foundation, Inc. Management Office
